INTERNSHIP OFFER LETTER GROWTH INTELLIGENCE INTERN

ATISHA BANJARE

Dear Vaishnavi Manda,

This is to formally confirm your selection as a Growth Intelligence Intern (Clay Analyst – Retention Research) for the project we discussed.

Internship Details

- Start Date: August 11th, 2025
- Duration: 1 – 1.5 months
- Location: Remote
- Stipend: Unpaid
- Commitment: Part-time
- Reporting To: Atisha Banjare, SaaS Retention Advisor
- Team: You will be working alongside 3 other interns.

Project Overview

You will be contributing to a lead scoring project using Clay, a no-code data enrichment platform. Your responsibilities will include:

- Developing and refining lead scoring models using Clay.
- Conducting data enrichment activities to gather comprehensive information on potential leads.
- Tagging companies based on relevant criteria.
- Generating actionable insights from the data for outreach.
- Maintaining and optimizing the Clay template used for this research.

What You Will Receive

Upon successful completion of the internship, you will receive:

- A certificate of completion recognizing your contribution.
- A LinkedIn recommendation based on your performance.
- Direct mentorship and guidance.

- Priority consideration for future paid projects.

As shared earlier, this is an unpaid internship, aligned with the nature and scope of the project.

Many of us, including myself, actively contribute to unpaid projects to gain deeper learning and give back to the ecosystem. I hope you will find this to be a valuable and enriching experience.

Wishing you a great learning journey ahead. Let’s build something insightful together.

Warmly,

Atisha Banjare
SaaS Retention Advisor
